Options AI does not provide investment, tax or legal advice and does not endorse or recommend the purchase or sale of any particular security or trading strategy.

Certain features of the Options AI website (“Website”) and the service (“Service”) include charts and interactive tools designed to generate and display amongst other things: (a) past performance data; (b) future price and outcome expectations derived from options market data; and, (c) potential stock and options trading strategies based upon your personal inputs. These features and all of their content are meant for informational and reference purposes only and are not intended to serve as a recommendation to buy or sell any security or to utilize any particular trading strategy. They are also not research reports, do not reflect the opinions or expectations of Option AI and should not be considered as a basis for judging future trends or as an indication of future results. Any data or information regarding the likelihood of various investment outcomes is hypothetical in nature, is not guaranteed for accuracy or completeness, does not reflect actual investment results and is not a guarantee of future results.

The Website may include certain features provided solely to demonstrate tools and other Content that are part of the Service available only to Customers of Options AI. Demo features are intended for informational purposes only and should not be used as the basis for making investment decisions or for any other purpose. Demo features use delayed or static data and Options AI makes no warranty whatsoever as to their accuracy or usefulness.

You alone are responsible for evaluating the merits and risks associated with use of the Website and the Service and for determining whether its features and tools are suitable for you. You are also solely responsible for your personal inputs, for evaluating all information and for any investment decision you make, whether or not such decision derives from your use of the Service.
